

Arbitration Spotlight

The Past and The Future of International Arbitration in Mauritius

Meet and Discuss with Duncan Bagshaw Member of the MARC Advisory Board

'Arbitration Spotlight: The Past and The Future of International Arbitration in Mauritius' is the event not to be missed for lawyers and other arbitration enthusiasts under 45.

Meet and discuss with Duncan Bagshaw during this afternoon session and get his insights into international arbitration in Mauritius and its evolution throughout time. Duncan is a barrister and a partner at Howard Kennedy LLP in London, where he practises exclusively in international arbitration matters.

This event is the sixth of the 'Arbitration Spotlight' series – an informal Q&A session - organised by MARC45, open to young lawyers and arbitration practitioners under 45, moderated by Khemila Narraido and Shrivani Dabee.

This 'Arbitration Spotlight: The Past and The Future of International Arbitration in Mauritius' session is also your opportunity to participate and pick the brain of one of the members of the MARC Advisory Board, be it in connection with international arbitration, related salient issues, or even career advice.

Date: Friday 14 June 2019

Time: 2:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m. (Registration: 2.00 p.m. to 2.15 p.m.)

Venue: MCCI/MARC, 2nd Floor Anglo-Mauritius House, 6, Adolphe de Plevitz street, Port Louis

MARC45 is the group for young lawyers and arbitration practitioners in Mauritius and beyond. We aim to promote the use of arbitration for better business and economic development, to promote Mauritius as an arbitration seat as well as to provide a platform for members to learn from each other.

Join us on this challenging endeavor and become a member of MARC45. Membership is dedicated to practitioners under 45.

Please register for the event online via www.mauritiuserbitrationweek.org
As seats are limited, participants will be registered on a first come first served basis.
