

Arbitration Spotlight

International Arbitration in a Changing Political Landscape

Meet and Discuss with Neil Kaplan CBE QC SBS, President of the MARC Court

'Arbitration Spotlight: International Arbitration in a Changing Political Landscape' is the event not to be missed for lawyers and other arbitration enthusiasts under 45.

Meet and discuss with Neil Kaplan CBE QC SBS for this afternoon session for his insights into international arbitration, its practice and development in a changing world.

This event is the third of the 'Arbitration Spotlight' series – an informal Q&A session - organised by MARC45, open to young lawyers and arbitration practitioners under 45, animated by Shrivani Dabee, Dipna Gunnoo and Béatrice Koon-Sam Soon.

This 'Arbitration Spotlight: International Arbitration in a Changing Political Landscape' session is also your opportunity to participate and pick the brain of one of the top international arbitrators in the world, be it in connection with international arbitration, related salient issues, or even career advice.

Date: Thursday 24 May 2018

Venue: MARC, Port Louis

Time: 4:15 p.m. - 5:45 p.m. (followed by networking drinks)

Sponsored by: Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas & Unicity Education Hub

MARC45 is the group for young lawyers and arbitration practitioners in Mauritius and beyond. We aim to promote the use of arbitration for better business and economic development, to promote Mauritius as an arbitration seat as well as to provide a platform for members to learn from each other.

Join us on this challenging endeavour and become a member of MARC45. Membership is dedicated to practitioners under 45.

Please register for the event via www.mauritiuarbitrationweek.org

As seats are limited, participants will be registered on a first come first served basis.
