

Fair play: unconscious influences in appointments and in the use of evidence in international arbitration

INVITATION

ArbitralWomen is pleased to invite you to a discussion, led by Elizabeth Oger-Gross (Partner, White & Case), of the ways in which individual characteristics such as gender and culture (including legal culture) are consciously and unconsciously taken into account in international arbitration.

A first panel, including Jalal El Ahdab (Partner, Ginesié Magellan Paley-Vincent), Sarah Grimmer (Secretary-General, Hong Kong International Arbitration Center), and Sami Houerbi (Director, ICC Dispute Resolution Services, Mediterranean, Middle-East and Africa) will discuss these issues and share their experiences in the context of nominations of counsel, experts, and arbitrators. Also with the participation of Christine Sauzier (Head of Legal Affairs, CIEL Corporate Services Ltd).

A second panel, including Anne-Sophie Jullienne (Barrister, AfraLaw Chambers), Jamsheed Peeroo (Barrister, Peeroo Chambers), and Jeffrey Waincymer (independent arbitrator and mediator; Adjunct Professor, National University of Singapore) will discuss these issues and share their experiences in the context of the presentation and consideration of evidence.

Date: Thursday 24 May 2018

Time: 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. (registration and networking coffee as from 1:30 p.m.)

Hosted by: MARC, 6 Adolphe de Plevitz Street, Port Louis, Mauritius
